

Yellow warning Rain

Between

06:00 Sat 31 Oct 2020 and
23:59 Sun 1 Nov 2020

Periods of heavy rain are expected to affect southern, central and western Scotland through the weekend bringing a risk of flooding.

What to expect

- There is a small chance that homes and businesses could be flooded, causing damage to some buildings
- There is a small chance of fast flowing or deep floodwater causing danger to life
- Where flooding occurs, there is a slight chance of delays or cancellations to train and bus services
- Spray and flooding could lead to difficult driving conditions and some road closures
- There is a small chance that some communities become cut off by flooded roads
- There is a slight chance of power cuts and loss of other services to some homes and businesses

Further details

There is the potential for some very unsettled weather through the coming weekend, especially across southern, central and western Scotland with periods of heavy rain expected through Saturday and, after a respite overnight, Sunday. The rain will fall onto already saturated ground increasing the risk of flooding.

Very low likelihood of medium impacts
